WELCOME TO WILLIAM & MARY WEEKEND IN CHICAGO!

A letter from your
William & Mary Weekend in Chicago
Committee Chairs

Michael Tang '76, P '13
Honorary Chair

Leanne Dorman Kurland '75, P '05
& Alex Kurland P '05
Co-Chairs

The next few days will be filled with unique and exclusive experiences only available through your William & Mary family. The Windy City is the perfect location to host social, professional, cultural and intellectual programming that engages and connects the almost 2,000 William & Mary alumni, parents, students and friends in the Chicago area as well as fellow members of the Tribe who traveled here to join us.

The Weekend formally kicks off on Friday evening with our Opening Reception and Keynote, featuring James B. Comey Jr. '82, LL.D. '08, P '10, P '22 talking about his new book "A Higher Loyalty," and providing us an insider's view of the challenges and events that unfolded under his leadership at the FBI. Throughout the Weekend, many of you will enjoy exclusive access to the Lyric Opera, Field Museum, Newberry Library and Wrigley Field. You will sample local food at the Green City Market and craft beer in Ravenswood, and laugh with alumni at the Improvised Shakespeare Company performance. You will also learn from beloved William & Mary professors about architecture in Chicago and nature at iconic museums and gardens across the city.

We are honored to host a luncheon discussion on Saturday between William & Mary President W. Taylor Reveley, III, and University of Chicago President Robert J. Zimmer on free speech issues, the challenges they have faced on their own campuses and what steps should be taken to protect this freedom today and in the future. We are also excited about our Saturday night Gala & Auction Dinner Cruise, during which we will raise funds to support future alumni programming and initiatives while enjoying the shimmering lights of the Chicago skyline from Lake Michigan.

A special note of appreciation goes to all of the Weekend committee members who have worked tirelessly to ensure that this experience is one to be remembered. And we couldn't be more thankful to all of our generous sponsors — the Weekend wouldn't be possible without your support.

We hope you enjoy this time to connect, discover and celebrate with fellow alumni, parents and friends. We are delighted to have you.
